Welcome

Our support group meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month at 7 p.m. Meetings are open to the parents, grandparents and older siblings of your loved one. We meet at the First Baptist Church downtown at 317 E. Kiowa. We understand your pain; won't you let us help you through your grief?

The death of your child is probably the most traumatic, life-changing event that you will ever The Compassionate Friends is an experience. organization of parents who have also lost a child to Each of us has experienced the deep, searing pain that you are feeling now. Each of us has turned to other parents who were farther into their grief journey for guidance, support and understanding. This is done through our monthly meetings, our newsletter, our website, our Telephone Friend program, our library and our e-mail program. Each month parents find our meeting to be a safe place where they can talk about their pain and problems with others who are uniquely qualified to understand; bereaved parents offer gentle suggestions or often simply listen. We invite you to bring a friend to your first few meetings until you feel a level of comfort with the group. Do not be surprised if we talk about the happy times with our children, the wonderful memories and the various methods we have created to keep our children close to us. It is here that many bereaved parents find hope as those who are more seasoned in their grief shine the light of experience to help illuminate each We have no dues. We are selfsustaining through donations and the generosity of so many in our community.

Our next meeting will be held on Dec. 19, 2019

Our Christmas Gift to You

They often sing of Silent Night
Come this time of year
Of "All is calm" and "All is bright"
But now that you're not here
The Christmas lights and festive sounds
Seem so dim to me
There are no presents I can give
For you beneath the tree.

Our special breakfast of fresh baked rolls Of cinnamon and frosting Cocoa for you and coffee for me Is something I am longing. The excitement on your little face As you tear into each gift Are only memories of you I have As every day I miss.

So now another year has passed Without you by our side
To make this holiday a special day
For your mom and I.
We miss you now, we missed you then,
And every day it's true
Our forever love is the only gift
We now can give to you.

Stew Levett - Pikes Peak TCF

The Magic Light of Day

Often, when I think of you it's in the morning light. Or other times, I find that it is in the soft twilight. Somehow in those early hours or in the dusk of day -I feel our connection soundly. from your place so far away. There's something very special about soft and dim sunlight that lets me know you're by my side and everything's alright. Not many would believe it's true, for heaven is far away. But all I know is - there you are, with me every day. You walk with me and comfort me, and somehow let me know. You'll guide the way along my life and meet me when I go.

Letter to Santa

Snowflakes softly falling upon your window they play Your blankets snug around you, into sleep you drift away. I bend to gently kiss you, when I see that on the floor There's a letter, neatly written I wonder who it's for. I quietly unfold it making sure you're still asleep, It's a Christmas list for Santa one my heart will always keep. It started just as always with the toys seen on TV, A new watch for your father and a winter coat for me. But as my eyes read on I could see deep inside There were many things you wished for that your loving heart would hide. You asked if your friend Molly could have another Dad; It seems her father hits her and it makes you very sad. Then you asked dear Santa if the neighbors down the street Could find a job, that they might have some food, and clothes, and heat. You saw a family on the news whose house had blown away, "Dear Santa, send then just one thing, a place where they can stay." "And Santa, those four cookies that I left you for a treat. Could you take them to the children who have nothing else to eat." "Do you know that little bear I have, the one I love so dear? I'm leaving it for you to take to Africa this year." And as you fly your reindeer on this night of Jesus' birth, Could your magic bring to everyone Goodwill and Peace on Earth. "There's one last thing before you go, so grateful I would be, If you'd smile at Baby Jesus in the manger by our tree." I pulled the letter close to me' I felt it melt my heart. Those tiny hands had written what no other could impart. "And a little child shall lead them," was whispered in my ear As I watched you sleep on Christmas Eve while Santa Claus was here.
