From The Editor -

Today we live in a time where news and information travels at the speed of light. Unfortunately the same holds true with our airborne illnesses.

The Coronavirus caught most of us off guard and found us scrambling to make sure we have the essentials to keep our families safe.

Due to these circumstances we find that our restaurants, places of worship, gyms, and community gathering places have found their doors closing willingly or by directive for safety reasons. This, of course, includes our monthly meetings at the church which many find not only helpful but necessary.

Losing our face to face community and even our family connections when added to the pain of losing your child can be crippling. What do we do now? Where do we turn for help.

I ask you to pick up the phone and reach out to one of us listed on this page. We are here to help and, possibly add a comforting voice to your stressful day. Should you find this a daunting task, call a friend or family member. Your voice just might be the voice they need to hear as well.

None of us knows exactly how long this is going to last or how long we may be practicing our social distancing. I do know we need each other and shouldn't feel uneasy or embarrassed to reach out during this time.

Stay safe. Stay healthy. Stay in touch.

Much love, Stew

Welcome New Friends.

Liz Hardy - Son, Tyler Hardy

At nearly every meeting we welcome new members to our group, always with mixed emotions. We are glad you found us, but we are so sorry for the circumstances that bring us together. We understand your pain; we hope our unconditional friendship and understanding will help you through your grief. Attending a meeting for the first two or three times takes courage, but for many it is the first real step toward healing. It may seem overwhelming, so we encourage you to come to several meetings to give yourself a chance to become comfortable.

Welcome

The death of your child is probably the most traumatic, life-changing event that you will ever experience. The Compassionate Friends is an organization of parents who have also lost a child to death. Each of us has experienced the deep, searing pain that you are feeling now. Each of us has turned to other parents who were farther into their grief journey for guidance, support and understanding. This is done through our monthly meetings, our newsletter, our website, our Telephone Friend program, our library and our e-Each month parents find our mail program. meeting to be a safe place where they can talk about their pain and problems with others who are uniquely qualified to understand; bereaved parents offer gentle suggestions or often simply listen. We invite you to bring a friend to your first few meetings until you feel a level of comfort with the group. Do not be surprised if we talk about the happy times with our children, the wonderful memories and the various methods we have created to keep our children close to us. It is here that many bereaved parents find hope as those who are more seasoned in their grief shine the light of experience to help illuminate each grief path. We have no dues. We are self-sustaining through donations and the generosity of so many in our community.

Our support group meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month at 7 p.m. Meetings are open to the parents, grandparents and older siblings of your loved one. We meet at the First Baptist Church downtown at 317 E. Kiowa. We understand your pain; won't you let us help you through your grief?

Due to the Covid-19 outbreak we have suspended our monthly meetings until further notice.

I Will See You Again

I will see you again, in the fullness of time, You will reach out your hand, I will take it in mine. As together we walk, all the sorrow-filled years, Will dissolve in a cloud, in the midst of our tears. I will see you again, we will laugh as before. I will kiss your dear face, as I pass through the door To a place where you are, and a bright shining sun Will assure my glad heart that my life has begun.

I will see you again, though the journey be long, I will try, for your sake, to sing some kind of song, And for you, I'll endeavor to live through my pain, 'til the moment, dear child, when I see you again.

Betty Kenna, TCF UK

Be Safe, Self Isolate.

Since we have lost our children, part of what remains of them are pictures from the heart, which are those mental images we hold so dear. For some of us these pictures are memories of what had been, and for others these pictures are dreams of what might have been. And for some of us these pictures are a little of both. For us, dreams and memories are really the same. It is the dimension where our children now reside.

In a sense, dreams are nothing more than memories of the future, because we remember our children by the dreams we had for them; and memories are nothing more than dreams of the past, because to remember them is certainly to dream of them. I believe it is incorrect to think that someone will not hurt as much because they only had their child for a little while or to think that someone will not hurt as much because their child had the chance to grow up. In these dreams and memories, these pictures from the heart, all of our children are infants and all of our children have grown up. The sadness and pain comes from the broken heart, the memories and the dreams from the pieces that remain.

I just can't believe it... The sun still rises and sets,

The moon and stars Still shine.

The flowers still bloom, The birds still sing.

I expected a change

In everything.

I just can't believe it...

It still gets dark and light,

The ocean still has waves. The rain still rains, The wind still blows. Is it because

They do not know?

I just can't believe it...

I thought

The world would stop, When in my house I found

An empty chair,

A missing smile.

I thought it would stop, For just a while.

I just can't believe it...
